TE would like to inform you of the following change(s) to the listed TE Connectivity Product. In case of any further questions about this change(s), please contact your TE Connectivity Sales Engineer. Affected part, drawing and/or specification numbers are listed on the attached sheet(s).

General Product Description:
Raw material change to SFR Heat Shrink Tubing

Description of Changes
A supplier has discontinued one raw material used in the manufacture of SFR tubing. As a result, deliveries of AS23053/10-qualified SFR products are impacted. TE is validating a replacement material to maintain long-term supply of SFR tubing. Currently, TE cannot ship AS23053/10-qualified SFR tubing under standard part numbers until NAVAIR qualification and release of the reformulated compound is complete. Customers requiring AS23053/10-qualified material must obtain either: 1. a waiver approved by the applicable DoD program MRB authority, or 2. an approved DD-1694.

Reason for Changes:
Product improvement.Supplier-driven raw material obsolescence requires qualification of a replacement material. TE's priority is to maintain supply of SFR tubing. Following internal validation, TE expects to resume shipments of commercial SFR products qualified to RT1140. These products are manufactured using the same processes and equipment and are expected to provide equivalent form, fit, and function. A separate PCN will be issued following completion of qualification activities for the new formulation.
